Who We Are

Residents in this large, growing segment are older, with more than half of all householders aged 55 or older; many still live in the suburbs where they grew up. Most are professionals working in government, health care or manufacturing. These Baby Boomers are earning a comfortable living and benefitting from years of prudent investing and saving. Their net worth is well above average. Many are enjoying the transition from child rearing to retirement. They value their health and financial well-being.

Our Neighborhood

- Married couples, some with children, but most without.
- Average household size slightly lower at 2.50.
- Found throughout the suburbs and small towns of metropolitan areas, where most residents own and live in single-family detached homes.
- Most homes built between 1950 and 1990.
- Households generally have one or two vehicles.

Market Profile

- Residents enjoy listening to sports radio or watching sports on television.
- Physically active, they play golf, ski, ride bicycles and work out regularly.
- Spending a lot of time online isn't a priority, so most own older home computers.
- Financial portfolio includes stocks, certificates of deposit, mutual funds and real estate.

Socioeconomic Traits

- Education: 34% college graduates; nearly 66% with some college education.
- Low unemployment at 7%; average labor force participation at 61%.
- Most households income from wages or salaries, but a third also draw income from investments and retirement.
- Comfortable Empty Nesters residents physically and financially active.
- Prefer eating at home instead of dining out.
- Home maintenance a priority among these homeowners.

An overview of who makes up this segment across the United States

Who We Are

Soccer Moms is an affluent, family-oriented market with a country flavor. Residents are partial to new housing away from the bustle of the city but close enough to commute to professional job centers. Life in this suburban wilderness offsets the hectic pace of two working parents with growing children. They favor time-saving devices, like banking online or housekeeping services, and family-oriented pursuits.

Our Neighborhood

- Soccer Moms residents prefer the suburban periphery of metropolitan areas.
- Predominantly single family, homes are in newer neighborhoods, 36% built in the 1990s, 31% built since 2000.
- Owner-occupied homes have high rate of mortgages at 74%, and low rate vacancy at 5%.
- Median home value is $226,000.
- Most households are married couples with children; average household size is 2.96.
- Most households have 2 or 3 vehicles; long travel time to work including a disproportionate number commuting from a different county

Market Profile

- Most households own at least two vehicles; the most popular types are minivans and SUVs.
- Family-oriented purchases and activities dominate, like 4+ televisions, movie purchases or rentals, children's apparel and toys, and visits to theme parks or zoos.
- Outdoor activities and sports are characteristic of life in the suburban periphery, like bicycling, jogging, golfing, boating, and target shooting.
- Home maintenance services are frequently contracted, but these families also like their gardens and own the tools for minor upkeep, like riding mowers and tillers.

Socioeconomic Traits

- Education: 37.7% college graduates; more than 70% with some college education.
- Low unemployment at 5.9%; high labor force participation rate at 72%; 2 out of 3 households include 2+ workers.
- Connected, with a host of wireless devices from iPods to tablets—anything that enables convenience, like banking, paying bills or even shopping online.
- Well insured and invested in a range of funds, from savings accounts or bonds to stocks.
- Carry a higher level of debt, including first and second mortgages and auto loans

An overview of who makes up this segment across the United States

Who We Are

Metro Fusion is a young, diverse market. Many residents do not speak English fluently and have moved into their homes recently. They are highly mobile. More than three-quarters of households are occupied by renters. Many households have young children; a quarter are single-parent families. The majority of residents live in midsize apartment buildings. Metro Fusion is a hard-working market with residents who are dedicated to climbing the ladders of their professional and social lives. This is particularly difficult for the single parents due to median incomes that are 35 percent lower than the U.S. average.

Our Neighborhood

- Over 60% of the homes are multi-unit structures located in the urban periphery.
- Three quarters of residents are renters, and rents are about ten percent less than the U.S. average.
- The majority of housing units were built before 1990.
- Single-parent and single-person households make up over half of all households.

Socioeconomic Traits

- They're a diverse market with 30% black, 34% Hispanic and 20% foreign born.
- Younger residents are highly connected, while older residents do not have much use for the latest and greatest technology.
- They work hard to advance in their professions, including working weekends.
- They take pride in their appearance, consider their fashion trendy, and stick with the same few designer brands.
- They spend money readily on what's hot unless saving for something specific.
- Social status is very important; they look to impress with fashion and electronics.

Market Profile

- They enjoy watching MTV, BET, Spanish TV networks and pay-per-view.
- They listen to R&B, rap, Latin and reggae music.
- Football and soccer are popular sports.
- They shop at discount grocery stores, Kmart and Walmart.
- They often eat frozen dinners, but when dining out prefer McDonald's, Wendy's and IHOP.

An overview of who makes up this segment across the United States

Who We Are

Middleburg neighborhoods transformed from the easy pace of country living to semi-rural subdivisions in the last decade, when the housing boom reached out. Residents are conservative, family-oriented consumers. Still more country than rock and roll, they are thrifty but willing to carry some debt and are already investing in their futures. They rely on their smartphones and mobile devices to stay in touch and pride themselves on their expertise. They prefer to buy American and travel in the U.S. This market is younger but growing in size and assets.

Our Neighborhood

- Semi-rural locales within metropolitan areas.
- Neighborhoods changed rapidly in the previous decade with the addition of new single-family homes.
- Include a number of mobile homes.
- Affordable housing, median value of $158,000 with a low vacancy rate.
- Young couples, many with children; average household size is 2.73.

Socioeconomic Traits

- Education: 66% with a high school diploma or some college.
- Unemployment rate lower at 7.4%.
- Labor force participation typical of a younger population at 66.7%.
- Traditional values are the norm here—faith, country and family.
- Prefer to buy American and for a good price.
- Comfortable with the latest in technology, for convenience (online banking or saving money on landlines) and entertainment.

Market Profile

- Residents are partial to trucks, SUVs, and occasionally, convertibles or motorcycles.
- Entertainment is primarily family-oriented, TV and movie rentals or theme parks and family restaurants.
- Spending priorities also focus on family (children's toys and apparel) or home DIY projects.
- Sports include hunting, target shooting, bowling and baseball.
- TV and magazines provide entertainment and information.
- Media preferences include country and Christian channels.
