Who We Are

Up and Coming Families is a market in transition—residents are younger and more mobile and ethnically diverse than the previous generation. They are ambitious, working hard to get ahead, and willing to take some risks to achieve their goals. The recession has impacted their financial well-being, but they are optimistic. Their homes are new; their families are young. And this is one of the fastest-growing markets in the country.

Our Neighborhood

- New suburban periphery: new families in new housing subdivisions.
- Building began in the housing boom of the 2000s and continues in this fast-growing market.
- Single-family homes with a median value of $174,000 and a lower vacancy rate.
- The price of affordable housing: longer commute times.

Socioeconomic Traits

- Education: 66% have some college education or degree(s).
- Hard-working labor force with a participation rate of 71% and low unemployment at 7%.
- Most households (63%) have two or more workers.
- Careful shoppers, aware of prices, willing to shop around for the best deals and open to influence by others' opinions.
- Seek the latest and best in technology.
- Young families still feathering the nest and establishing their style.

Market Profile

- Rely on the Internet for entertainment, information, shopping and banking.
- Prefer imported SUVs or compact cars, late models.
- Carry debt from credit card balances to student loans and mortgages, but also maintain retirement plans and make charitable contributions.
- Busy with work and family; use home and landscaping services to save time.
- Find leisure in family activities, movies at home, trips to theme parks or the zoo, and sports, from backpacking and baseball to weight lifting and yoga.

Who We Are

Gen Y comes of age: Well-educated young workers, some of whom are still completing their education, are employed in professional/technical occupations, as well as sales and office/administrative support roles. These residents are not established yet, but striving to get ahead and improve themselves. This market ranks in the top 5 for renters, movers, college enrollment and labor-force participation rate. Almost 1 in 5 residents move each year. Close to half of all householders are under the age of 35, the majority living alone or in shared non-family dwellings. Median household income is still below the U.S. average. Smartphones are a way of life, and they use the Internet extensively. Young and Restless consumers are diverse, favoring densely populated neighborhoods in large metropolitan areas; more than 50 percent are located in the South (almost a fifth in Texas), with the rest chiefly in the West and Midwest.

Our Neighborhood

- One of the youngest markets: Half the householders under age 35; median age 29.4.
- Primarily single-person households with some shared households.
- Highly mobile market, beginning careers and changing addresses frequently.
- Naturally, one of the top five renter markets.
- Apartment rentals popular: 45% in 5-19 unit buildings, 26% in 20+ unit buildings.
- Majority of housing built in 1970 or later (83%).

Socioeconomic Traits

- Education completed: 2 out of 3 have some college, an associate's degree, or a bachelor's degree or higher. Education in progress: almost 15% are still enrolled in college.
- Labor force participation rate is exceptionally high at 75.4%; unemployment is low at 7.8%.
- These are careful shoppers, aware of prices, and demonstrate little brand loyalty.
- They like to be the first to try new products, but prefer to do research before buying the latest electronics.
- Most of their information comes from the Internet and TV, rather than traditional media.
- Carry their cell phone everywhere they go.

Market Profile

- No landline telephone for majority of households, preferring a cell phone only.
- Use their cell phone to text, listen to music, pay bills, redeem coupons, look up directions and access financial information.
- Online activities include banking (with paperless statements), purchasing items on eBay, accessing Twitter and Facebook, and watching movies and TV shows.
- Enjoy dancing, playing pool, watching MTV and Comedy Central programs, reading fashion magazines and playing volleyball.
- Listen to blues, jazz, rap, hip hop, and dance music and read music magazines.
- Purchase natural/organic food, but frequent fast food restaurants.

Who We Are

Urban Chic residents are professionals who live a sophisticated, exclusive lifestyle. Half of all households are occupied by married-couple families, and about 30 percent are singles. These are busy, well-connected and well-educated consumers—avid readers and moviegoers, environmentally active and financially stable. This market is a bit older, with a median age of almost 43 years, and growing slowly, but steadily.

Our Neighborhood

- More than half of Urban Chic households include married couples; 30% are singles.
- Average household size is slightly lower than average at 2.37.
- Homes range from prewar to recent construction, high-rise to single family.
- Over 60% of householders live in single-family homes; more than one in four live in multi-unit structures.
- Two-thirds of homes are owner occupied.
- Major concentrations of these neighborhoods are found in the suburban periphery of large metropolitan areas on the California coast and along the East Coast.
- Most households have two vehicles available. Commuting time is slightly longer, but commuting by bicycle is common.

Market Profile

- Shop at Trader Joe's, Costco or Whole Foods.
- Eat organic foods, drink imported wine, and truly appreciate a good cup of coffee.
- Travel extensively (domestically and internationally).
- Prefer to drive luxury imports and shop at upscale establishments.
- Embrace city life by visiting museums, art galleries and movie theaters for a night out.
- Avid book readers of both digital and audio formats.
- Financially shrewd residents that maintain a healthy portfolio of stocks, bonds and real estate.
- In their downtime, enjoy activities such as skiing, yoga, hiking and tennis.

Socioeconomic Traits

- Well educated, more than 60% of residents hold a bachelor's degree or higher.
- Unemployment rate is well below average at 5%; labor force participation is higher at 69%.
- Residents are employed in white-collar occupations—in managerial, technical and legal positions.
- Over 40% of households receive income from investments.
- Environmentally aware, residents actively recycle and maintain a "green" lifestyle.
- These busy, tech-savvy residents use PCs extensively for an array of activities such as shopping, banking and staying current—a top market for Apple computers.

An overview of who makes up this segment across the United States

Who We Are

Down the Road is a mix of low-density, semi-rural neighborhoods in large metropolitan areas; half are located in the South, with the rest chiefly in the West and Midwest. Almost half of householders live in mobile homes; approximately two-fifths live in single-family homes. These are younger, diverse communities, with the highest proportion of American Indians of any segment. These family-oriented consumers value their traditions. Workers are in service, retail trade, manufacturing and construction industries, with higher proportions in agriculture and mining, compared to the U.S. in general. This market has higher unemployment, much lower median household income and home value, and a fifth of households with income below poverty level.

Our Neighborhood

- Two-thirds of households are owned.
- Family market, primarily married couples or single-parent households.
- Close to half of all households live in mobile homes.
- Four-fifths of households were built in 1970 or later.
- About 18% of owned homes are valued under $50,000 (more than three times the U.S. percentage).

Socioeconomic Traits

- Education completed: 37% with a high school diploma only, 38% with some college education or a degree.
- Unemployment rate is 11.6%, higher than the U.S. rate.
- Labor force participation rate is 59.6%, slightly lower than the U.S.
- Family-oriented, outgoing consumers; they place importance on preserving time-honored customs.
- They put a premium on convenience rather than health and nutrition.

Market Profile

- Purchased a used vehicle in the past year, likely maintaining the vehicle themselves.
- Routinely stop by the convenience store to purchase a lottery ticket.
- Participate in fishing and hunting.
- Visit chat rooms and play games online.
- Listen to the radio, especially at work, with a preference for rap, R&B and hip-hop music.
- Enjoy programs on Animal Planet, typically watching via satellite dish.
- Often prepare quick meals, using packaged or frozen dinner entrees.
- Favorite fast food: pizza.
- Frequent Walmart for all their shopping needs (groceries, clothing, pharmacy, etc.).

Who We Are

The Green Acres lifestyle features country living and self-reliance. They are avid do-it-yourselfers, maintaining and remodeling their homes, with all the necessary power tools to accomplish the jobs. Gardening, especially growing vegetables, is also a priority, again with the right tools, tillers, tractors and riding mowers. Outdoor living also features a variety of sports: hunting and fishing, motorcycling, hiking and camping, and even golf. Self-described conservatives, residents of Green Acres remain pessimistic about the near future yet are heavily invested in it.

Our Neighborhood

- Rural enclaves in metropolitan areas, primarily (not exclusively) older homes with acreage; new housing growth in
- the past 10 years.
- Single-family, owner-occupied housing, with a median value of $197,000.
- An older market, primarily married couples, most with no children.

Socioeconomic Traits

- Education: 60% are college educated.
- Unemployment is low at 6%; labor force participation rate is high at 67.4%.
- Income is derived not only from wages and salaries but also from self-employment (more than 15% of households), investments (30% of households), and increasingly, from retirement.
- They are cautious consumers with a focus on quality and durability.
- Comfortable with technology, more as a tool than a trend: banking or paying bills online is convenient; but the Internet is not viewed as entertainment.
- Economic outlook is professed as pessimistic, but consumers are comfortable with debt, primarily as home and auto loans, and investments.

Market Profile

- Purchasing choices reflect Green Acres' residents country life, including a variety of vehicles from trucks and SUVs to ATVs and motorcycles, preferably late model.
- Homeowners favor DIY home improvement projects and gardening.
- Media of choice are provided by satellite service, radio and television, also with an emphasis on country and home and garden.
- Green Acres residents pursue physical fitness vigorously, from working out on home exercise equipment to playing a variety of sports.
- Residents are active in their communities and a variety of social organizations, from fraternal orders to veterans' clubs.
